PORTLAND CO., OFFICERS NAMED

Sixteen Other Persons Connected With Hawkins Mortgage Co., Indicted in Federal Court

FOR USING MAILS TO DEFRAUD

Interest in Crash of Portland, Ind.
Concern Here as Several Local
People Investigated

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 16—Three officers of the Hawkins Mortgage Company of Portland, Ind., and sixteen other persons connected with the operation of the concern in Indiana and eight other states were indicted by a federal grand jury here today on charges of using the mails to defraud. It is charged that stockholders in the Hawkins Company and affiliated concerns suffered losses of between four million and six million dollars in the collapse of the concern.

True bills were returned against Morton S. Hawkins, president; Anthony Schieb, vice president, and Carl B. Anderson, secretary-treasurer of the concern. The three men are from Portland, Ind.

Sixteen other persons named in the indictment are said to be from Pennsylvania, Missouri, New York, Indiana and several other states. Names of the others were withheld pending their arrest.

Frank Fuchs, former vice president of the Citizens National bank at Evansville was also indicted on a charge of violating the national banking laws. Investigation of his affairs followed discovery of a storage of $30,000 in the accounts of the bank.

The grand jury was dismissed after it reported today, but Homer Elliott, district attorney, said it would be summoned again within three or four weeks.

It was believed that the investigation of Governor McCray's affairs if undertaken by the federal authorities, will be made at that time.

The indictment, in sixteen counts, charges that the defendants sold shares of the Hawkins Mortgage company by falsely representing that the company was operating at a profit, when in reality it was constantly operating at a loss.

It is further charged that the defendants organized "welfare loan societies" and represented them to be "the strongest of their class" with the backing of the Hawkins company and its "$9,000,000 worth of assets."

Only 37 of the 102 welfare loan societies organized ever opened their doors for business, the indictment charges. Only two ever made a profit.

Dividends of eight percent were paid on the stock of the Hawkins company and the loan associations out of money collected from the sale of stock, it is charged.

About 700,000 of the money collected through these societies was held out by some defendants for payment of "dividends," it is charged.

Formation of a chain of the welfare loan associations began in 1918.

MISCONSTRUED BY MANY

Combining Railroad Offices Changes
Status of Workers Very Little

The announcement a few days ago in the Daily Republican to the effect that Jesse M. Higgins, Pennsylvania and C. I. & W. freight agent, had been made ticket agent as well for the two railroads, has been misconstrued by many people, who are under the impression that L. C. Snodgrass, now on a leave of absence, is no longer connected with the C. I. & W.

Under the new arrangement, Mr. Snodgrass will still be ticket representative of the two railroads, and will continue to have charge of the ticket business whenever he returns, but the change making Mr. Higgins both ticket and freight agent merely has the effect of placing the business of the two railroads locally under one account. The contract to this effect was made September 1, 1923, but the details were never worked out until the first of this year and did not become effective until January 7.

Thursday will be fair and colder, and the lowest for this area is predicted to be near 5 degrees above zero mark by morning.

BUILDING TO BE OCCUPIED MONDAY

Preparations Made For Jackson
Township Children to Begin Term
in New School Structure

TO BE FINISHED NEXT SUMMER

The new consolidated school building in Jackson township, which was begun about a year ago, is now nearing completion, and seats were installed in the class rooms Tuesday in preparation for the first day of school in the new building on next Monday.

The building is not completed, but the rooms are finished enough to permit school, and the rest of the building, such as the assembly hall and gymnasium will be completed next summer.

The work on the building was delayed several months last summer when it was a hard matter for the contractor to obtain steel window sash, and it had been planned to have the building ready for occupancy at the opening of school last fall. Last year the Jackson township pupils were transferred to Rushville.

This year the old buildings were out in shape and the one room school at Sexton and the two room building at Osborn were utilized until the building could be built for the consolidation. The high school pupils for the most part come to Rushville, and it was intimated today that an effort would be made next fall to install a two year high school course.

SET GREAT EXAMPLE, HE SAID

Washington, Jan. 16—With hymn and prayer, two thousand dry workers of the Anti-Saloon League, gathered in a winter rain in front of the White House to pledge to President Coolidge their loyalty and cooperation in helping him enforce the laws.

"It is a fundamental principle reaching every activity of our government, it is the foundation of all the principles on which Americanism rests and the source of all civilization."

JAMES L. NEWKIRK IS DEAD AT AGE OF 71

Well Known Resident of Sexton Expires Tuesday Night—Widow And
Seven Children Survive

CAME TO COUNTY WHEN 17

He moved to this county when 17 years of age, and had since resided here, and was a farmer of his community. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Rebecca A. Newkirk, and seven children.

Three sisters, Mrs. Sallie O'Keefe, Mrs. Laura Vandament and Mrs. Millie Zorne, all of Gings, also survive.

Want Ad. Proves Its Worth At Psychological Moment

The efficacy of the humble want ad as an advertising medium, for obtaining wives or anything else desired, has again been demonstrated, and it happened that the demonstration took place about the time a national journal devoted to the interests of the newspaper business sent a query to the Daily Republican for a concrete example to show that advertising does pay.

And the Republican was able to fill the bill forthwith.

Twelve days ago this man mailed a want ad to the Republican, advertising for a white lady for a companion. The word comes from him that he did the work, that it found for him "a good Christian woman."

It all transpired in less than two weeks, showing want ads, not only pay well but quickly.

IMPROVEMENT OF PARK CONSIDERED

Preliminary Steps Taken at Council
Meeting to Extend Corporation
Line to Include Addition

BOULEVARD WILL BE BUILT

Ray Lakin Resigns as Parolman, But
No Successor is Named—Homer
Cole is Sworn In

Plans for the improvement of Memorial park will be taken up early this spring, according to an announcement made by members of the city council, at their meeting Tuesday night and at which time preliminary steps were ordered to extend the north corporation limits of the city to include the new park lands.

The city civil engineer will be asked to draw plans and specifications for the Memorial Park Boulevard, and bids for the construction of the driveway will be advertised at a meeting in the near future.

Among other business to come before the council last night, was the resignation of Patrolman Ray P. Lakin, which was accepted by the council. The resignation was effective at once, and no appointment of his successor was made by the councilmen.

Although no reason was assigned for his resignation, it is understood that the recent affair with the police department, in which Mayor Thomas demanded a reorganization of the force, is believed to be responsible in a measure for the policeman's action.

Homer W. Cole, appointed at the last session to fill out the unexpired term of Luther C. Sharp, as city councilman, was on hand last night, and sworn into office.

The council also went on record approving a plan endorsed by the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs of sending a delegation to Indianapolis Friday of this week to call upon the State Board of Tax Commissioners in connection with the decision that is expected to be handed down soon on the paving of Harrison and Eighth streets under the three-mile law.

The paving of this street has been delayed several years, and although the contract was awarded years ago to Lawrence and Ennis for the concrete street, it is understood that the contractors are ready to begin work on the street as soon as the state board gives the authority for the improvement.

ist In Court

CORN GROWERS HOLD THE BOARDS

How Indiana Helped Make Maryland
Real Corn Growing State Related
at Short Course Session

MARYLAND FARMER SPEAKS

After First Classes This Morning, All
Sessions Adjourn For State Corn
Growers Meeting

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 16—How Indiana corn has helped make Maryland a real corn growing state was told the Indiana Corn Growers Association at its annual meet here today. G. D. Radebaugh, of Elkton, Md., county agricultural agent and farmer, and also a member of the extension staff of the College of Agriculture, was the principal speaker.

He traced the early efforts of the Maryland corn growers and then said that the $10 he had spent for a bushel of select seed corn from a well known Indiana grower was the best investment he had ever made.

"I bought this corn and then thought I would get my money's worth by getting all the information I could. I shall never forget that course in corn which this grower, who is here today, gave me. I asked him all about selecting corn, what to look for and how to look for it," said Mr. Radebaugh. "I followed his directions. The seed was selected for type and free from root rot disease which you have discovered, yielded $4.21 bushels per acre. On behalf of Maryland farmers, I want to thank you for all you have meant to us in making Maryland a 'corn state.'"

C. E. Troyer, Lafontaine, president of the association, discussed Indiana type of corn. M. H. Overton of the farm management staff spoke on cost of producing corn.

After the first classes this morning all sessions for the day were adjourned for the corn growers' meeting, except that in home economics. Miss Gudrum Carlson, Institute of American Meat Packers, spoke on the food value of meat and while a local butcher made the cuts for her she demonstrated many appetizing ways of preparing the various parts.

Bread from Indiana flour was an important topic discussed this morning while this afternoon was given over to a round table discussion on selection of furniture, draperies, labor saving devices in the home, and skits by the clothing classes of Purdue coeds.

Melvin A. Traylor, Chicago bank president will be the speaker tonight.

One Friend Tells Another

The fame of a successful remedy is often spread far and wide by women telling one another of its merits, as is evidenced by a letter written by Mrs. Delbert Bush of Masena, N. Y. She writes: "I was in such a bad condition I could hardly walk, a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with excellent results advised me to try it. It has given me back my health and I cannot praise it enough." There are women everywhere who have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gladly tell their friends and neighbors about it.

Were the "Good Old Days" Really Good?

WHEN you hear an old-timer sigh for the days of his forefathers, smile quietly to yourself and think of this:

The ancients got along without automobiles, soap, stoves, tooth-brushes, window-glass, breakfast foods, telephones—without practically all of the things we consider the bare essentials of life.

There never has been a time when life bettered itself so rapidly and so consistently as now. New conveniences and new comforts are continually being thought out and brought out for your benefit.

In order to reap the advantages that are yours today, you must read the advertisements. They bring you news of all that the world of invention and discovery is doing to make your work easier, your home life more pleasant, your clothing and food problems less difficult. They keep you informed of all that is new in the markets and stores. They tell you not only about the goods, the styles, the varieties and prices, but also where and when these things are to be had.

The advertisements are messages from the business world to you. Heed them.

INTEREST DISPLAYED IN REVIVAL MEETING

The Rev. F. R. Arnold Delivering Sermons Each Night At The Wesley M. E. Church

SOME POINTS IN HIS SERMON

The Rev. F. R. Arnold, the evangelist who is here assisting the Rev. C. T. Parker in a revival service at the Wesley M. E. church, spoke last night from the subject "Who's On the Lord's Side."

His text was found in the book of Joshua 4:15. Some of the points of discussion were: "The Age of Infidelity has passed." "And if Robert Ingersoll lived today he would speak to more empty benches than hearers."

He said "the masses were given to too much pleasure seeking." His climax was an illustration of a mother's light shining out over the sea to guide her husband and daughter back to harbor. He applied this illustration by saying: "Regardless how weak we may be, we can hold a light to struggling souls to help them to find harbor."

Much interest is displayed each evening by the prayer services, and the choir could not be excelled in the renditions of appropriate selections, it is said. The public is urged to attend these services each evening. The subject for tonight will be "Trusting in God."

FARMERS SILENT ABOUT NEW YEAR

Decline to Express Views Regarding Prospects For a Good Year Regarding Finances

CROP OUTLOOK IS GOOD

Adjustment For Farmer Includes Lowering of Taxes And Economy in Expenditures

By BRUCE SHORT

President, The Engineering Sales Corporation (Written for United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 15—Bankers, merchants, manufacturers and economists have joined their voices together in declaring they expect 1924 to be "a happy and prosperous new year," but the farmers have kept their silence. Their interests have been flouted when other enterprises prospered in the past and their purchasing power has fluctuated independently of so-called economic influences. So they are skeptical about making predictions even when all indications point toward a good year for them.

But there has been a slight change in the farmer's favor within the past year and all appearances point to further slight changes in that direction during 1924. Through co-operative marketing and scientific rotation of his crops, the farmer is gradually coming to control his own financial destiny and many steps will be taken in that direction during the current year. In addition, the crop outlook is encouraging.

One of the greatest problems confronting the farmer is that of taxation. Of all the industries, the farmer bears more than his share of the tax burden, because all of his property is tangible and all of it is listed on the tax duplicate. Intangible wealth escapes taxation to a large degree. Remedial steps may be taken to overcome this situation the innate selfishness of some politicians may seek to save money to financiers for political expediency.

This selfishness, present in all to some extent, prevents an equitable taxation and thereby throws more of the burden on the farmer. If all property were listed at actual value the burden would be more evenly apportioned. To bring about a readjustment, the farmer has adopted this creed.

Economy in public expenditures. Honest value for money spent. Just apportionment of burden.

The buying of steel for the year is starting with little momentum, but with steady conservatism that makes for lasting and enduring prosperity and this fact as a criterion of business a better outlook is reflected for the farmer.

A Common Habit.

A free people is one that endures the waste of billions and sends about a little junket.—The Duluth Herald.

Smoke this package tax free—you'll get acquainted with a cigarette so balanced in the blend, so mild in the flavor, so smooth in the smoking and so fragrant with the sealed-in-virtues of the toasted process, that you'll change to this brand that never changes—and you'll never change again.

To men who already smoke Lucky Strike

We want you, too, to get this tax free package, maybe to pass it on to a friend who doesn't yet know the pleasure you know.

Let him enjoy Lucky Strike as you do. Tell him to try one package and then see if he agrees with you and millions of others that there's no cigarette with such characteristic superiority.

Tell him why you prefer Lucky Strike. Tell him that the extra 45 minutes of toasting insures a flavor that never varies. He'll find, as you have, that this is a cigarette which can be continuously enjoyed. The flavor never varies.

Some one introduced you to your first Lucky Strike and you recall it as a lucky discovery. So pass the good word along. Give some friend the same opportunity. Tear out the coupon now.

Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy noon withdraw itself; for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.—Isaiah 60:20.

Better Business

Better business methods will come about largely through organization. The business man who belongs to his trade association and attends its meetings regularly not alone profits himself, but his customers profit also. He keeps in stride with the new ideas that are developing in his particular line. He learns new devices to cut down the overhead and thus make it possible to reduce his retail prices. Business men who follow this policy have higher standards because association with their fellow dealers teaches them that a new standard is coming into business.

It is no longer the rule that the buyer should beware. Instead, the seller is beginning to realize his responsibility to the buyer—that a fair profit is all he is entitled to. If he takes more, the buyer will find him out because his competitor is doing business on a new ethical basis.

Every profession is organized to maintain the high ethical standard that it aims to follow. Business men are seeing the light and following the same path.

The auctioneers of Indiana are the latest recruits to this new movement that is general throughout the country.

The association's object is to promote harmony, co-operation and good fellowship among those who follow that business. They hope to advance their calling by placing its services to the public on a higher plane.

That is the keynote in all business organization—to raise the standard and thus remove all doubt of questionable practices.

The buyer is being considered as never before. It is a movement that should be encouraged.

Petitions

Not so long ago a petition ten miles long, bearing the names of 345,546 people, was presented to congress.

It matters little what the petition

First

S. Youssry Pasha, the first Egyptian minister to the United States, has arrived in Washington to take up his official duties. Temporary headquarters of the Egyptian legation may be found at the Willard Hotel.

was for. The point is that congress is petitioned so often that one seldom creates a ripple on the surface of the placid capitol.

To a politician nothing is quite so funny as a petition, or a resolution which amounts to the same thing. It is the favorite outdoor sport of a large class of our so-called good citizens. They take it seriously.

But the hardened politician? He knows a petition is little more than the letting go of mental pressure, the exhaust pipe of the over-worked business man.

He is well aware that resolutions and petitions are solemnly read, widely acclaimed through the public press, invariably adopted with a loud yay vote—and very soon forgotten.

The politician can afford to take time to read them when they come in from the home district. He knows they express the sentiment of the people of that locality for the moment, and he also knows that very few of the petitioners or the resolvers will be out on primary day, when political power is given birth.

He has been in the game long enough to know that until people take an active part in politics, actually join a political party and have something to say about its conduct, petitions and resolutions are the least of his worries—except that they take a certain amount of time.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

Open Season For Crows

"Any old time" is the open season for crows; but a stormy day at this season of the year, is by far the best time to "make the feathers fly" even if you can't hit Mr. Crow. The inherent quality of sportsmanship is the chief cause of wars and "gun-clubs" then why not direct this stupendous waste against a real enemy of mankind?

The idea, is to let it become generally understood that on a cold stormy day in winter, when there is abundant of leisure, and need for recreation, is to be known as "crow day", and that on that day the crows to have no resting place for the sole of his feet.

I have found it to be a good plan, to hang a few crows in the top of a tall tree for lure. This is done by—first shooting a crow or two—and then passing a twine over the top of said tree. For the benefit of those who would climb the tree to pass the twine over its top, would say that this is very easily done by fastening a bolt to the end of the twine and throwing the bolt over the top of the tree. The twine unwinds quite readily from the center of a ball of binder twine, and the lure is soon placed.

The chief idea in this method of routing the crows from a county or state—for they have really become a state menace—is to have concerted action. If it is known that "every stormy-day" is "crow-day", and that it is quite difficult for the crows to fly, and that at best they proceed on "low gear", in a strong wind, we would soon be able to rid the community of this nuisance without having special appointed dates for the work of sport as you choose to name it.

The next suggestion!!! Geewhiz! There's a caw-caw just outside this window and I haven't time to write more!!!

NEWSY GOSSIP IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

TICKETS COMING FOR
GAME WITH IKMIKS

HITTIN' 'EM —AND— MISSIN' 'EM

Hooray, we getta tourney again this year, and Mr. Ihsaa gives Richmond a regional also, and tells Rushville that they can send their Lions to the Richmond regional. That's fine. Cancel our ticket for Shelbyville.

Rushville will have lots of company up at Richmond with the winners from Indianapolis, Shelbyville, Newcastle and others. Sorta handy, to have a regional so close to home.

The Lions have decided to let the Ikmiiks win both games, we understand, and then when the tourney comes around, mop up the earth with 'em, if Moscow, Raleigh or some other county team don't do it first.

ANOTHER TOURNEY BOOKED

Gosh, lots of excitement! Girls arrange to hold a basketball tourney here February 23. All ten high school girls' teams in Rush county will come here for the all day session. Whose goin' to win the cup. Is it proper to call a girl's team a "dark horse?"

It wouldn't be safe to invite that Orange team with that girl shark, getting 29 goals in one game.

Tickets for the Connersville game will be sent here last of this week. Only 100 available, and even at that it won't guarantee admission, unless you are on hand when the big gate swings open.

LOOK FOR IT, SIDE LIGHTS

Judge Sparks has not found his automobile, and he is inclined to believe that old Liz made an early get-away, and is now parked in front of the Rink over at Connersville, or else in front of the community hall at Greenfield.

Best will referee and Mowe will umpire for the game at Connersville next Friday night. Two good officials. Show 'em you can play basketball, gang.

Don't forget that the thirteenth game this season is being played at Greenfield Friday night by the Lions. Everyone better carry a rabbit's foot, or luck might change.

A Webb booster told Hittin' 'em today, that his team was goin' to make Carthage look like a back number. They play here Friday night.

WATCH ARLINGTON

That surprise party that Jimmie Hyatt said he expected Arlington to spring, someone of these days, might be an upset for Raleigh Friday night over at Arlington.

Milroy plays at Maunila Friday night, and the way that Maunila has been acting up lately, we wouldn't be a bit surprised if they didn't try terribly hard to get back in the winning again.

surprised. Our guess is that it will be Muncie, or probably Frankfort, Vincennes or Anderson, and not Connersville, Columbus, Shelbyville or Rushville.

Whatever team he picks, is the least of our worries. The one he picks, will be offset by 745 others, all disputing it.

PA, MA AND THE KIDS LEAVE HOME FRIDAY

The Lions tribe leaves their barn Friday night, with the Lions and their Cubs going over to Greenfield, and the Lionesses will go down to Columbus to meet the Bull Dog girls. What a great night it would be if all three teams could win in the same night.

SAVE US A STALL IN THE COUNTY STABLE

New Salem, Ind.

Dear Hittin' 'em—
I have been noticing the paper every day, but I haven't seen anything in there about a stall for the New Salem Jinx.

We have been going good lately and advise some of those teams that have been getting honorable mentions to keep an eye on us at the tourney.

We have won our last eight games. We play Center at Rushville January 18, then Morristown and Webb, February 22. We are not scared of any of the teams scheduled for the rest of the season. Here's our last eight victories:

Orange here 15 to 11.
Arlington, here, 29 to 17.
Fairview here, 22 to 15.
Center, here, 26 to 6.
Orange, there, 24 to 12.
Fairview there, 23 to 20.
Glenwood here, 39 to 9.
Arlington there, 23 to 19.

A FAN

Arlington, Ind.

Dear Hittin' 'em:
So many have been picking an all county team. Chances are that a few are making fairly good choice. But just wait until around about tourney time and Arlington will make somebody open their eyes. It is true that we have had a bad go this season but nevertheless that undying spirit is found amongst us in every game. And it is our policy to make some team earn their meat in the tourney. Watch for us! We are going over the top!

Yours for success,

Alburtus, the Great Mental Jiber, is in Frankfort this week, and predicts Frankfort for the state champ. By the time the tourney rolls around, we'll wager ole Bertie will be far away, in fear that his prediction might not come true.

There's a Hoo-doo doctor in these parts that can cure all diseases, raise the dead, and about everything else that comes before her, and for an extra side line she'd sure clean up a lot of pack, if she would tell some of these teams what ails 'em.

THIS BIG 5 LOOKS LIKE A BIG 10

Dear Hittin' 'em:
I suppose you would deem it a great favor if I should send you my big, all county five. Well here it is: Hilligoss, Rushville; Snoddy, Rushville; Miller Rushville; forwards: Walker, Rushville; Newbold, Rushville; Lakin, Rushville; centers: Comella, Rushville; McNamara, Rushville; Warth, Rushville; Sherman, Rushville guards. What do you think of it? Pretty good 'eh?

But say, Hittin' 'em, the main object of this letter was to find out if some of these wise birds up at Carthage, who think they have such a wonderful team, can think up any better. I doubt it don't you?

I'll tell this to the whole world through you. Comp. or slam, take it as you like it. Yours for a while,

Will Meet Carthage Netters Next Friday Night And Arlington The Following Friday Night

RUSHVILLE 5 WILL BE AWAY

The Webb high school basketball team will be host here Friday night to the Carthage high school netters, and the game will be played at the Graham Annex gymnasium, instead of the Modern Appliance building.

This was made possible on account of the absence of the Graham high school team, which will be playing in Greenfield, and the Webb school was given the privilege of trying their luck with the glass banking boards.

The Webb team also will play here on the next Friday night when the Lions are in Connersville, and this game will be played at the Graham school, with Arlington as the opponent of Webb.

Rushville basketball fans, who are unable to accompany the Lions to Greenfield, will be given an opportunity of seeing the Carthage and Webb teams play. Each team is believed to have an even break, and the floor will be in a great measure a neutral court.

COUNTY TOURNEY FOR GIRLS IS ANNOUNCED

Ten High Schools Having Teams Composed of The "Weaker Sex" Are Expected to Enter

SET FOR SATURDAY, FEB 23

Plans for a county high school basketball tourney for all ten high schools in the county having a girl's team, have about been completed, it was announced today by Eugene B. Butler, principal of the local high school, and the date for the one day tourney has been set for Saturday, February 23.

Entry lists for the teams are being received and indications point to the fact that every one of the ten girl's teams will be here for the games, and details for the drawing will be announced in a few days.

With ten teams in the county, it will mean 9 games to decide the winner, and a busy day will be in sight for the girls. The games will be played at the Graham Annex gymnasium, and it will be the first event of its kind in the history of Rush county schools.

will play the winner of 9 a. m. game in the first contest of the afternoon and the winner of the 10 a. m. game will meet the winner of the 11 a. m. in the second game, with the final at night. It is expected that curtain-raiser will be arranged for the night game.

CONNERSVILLE WILL SEND 100 TICKETS

Rushville Rooters Will Have to Take "Pot Luck" With Connersville on Getting Seats

SPECIAL CAR WILL BE RUN

The Connersville school authorities are sending over to Rushville the latter part of this week, 100 tickets for the Rushville-Connersville game, which is to be played in that city January 25.

These tickets will be placed on sale only at the school building, and those wanting a ticket must make reservations from the school. A ticket will not guarantee admission to the gymnasium, it was announced, and everyone holding a ticket must be in line when the doors are opened.

A special car on the I. & C. traction line will be run from this city for the high school fans and others, desiring to go, and the car will leave here at 4:30 or 5 o'clock. The doors at the gymnasium are billed to be opened at 6:45, and the cars from here are leaving soon enough to give the Rushville rooters an equal chance to get in line before the doors open.

Best will be the official referee, it was announced, and Ray Mowe will be the umpire for the game.

ARLINGTON TAKES ON SANDUSKY THURSDAY

Marlow Brothers Are Members of Fast Independent Basket Cagers to Invade The County

HOW TWO TEAMS WILL LINE UP

The Arlington A. C.'s will tackle the Sandusky Independents Thursday night at the Arlington gym. The Sandusky team is composed of the following players: R. Marlow, C. Marlow, Clark, Osterling and Ruddell. Little is known of this team's record for the season as they have played no games in Rush county, but everyone knows the ability of the Marlow brothers and fast game is assured.

This will probably be the only appearance of the Sandusky team in the county this season and all fans are urged to attend. The Arlington team will use the following well known players: Shook, Gardner, Emerson and Lowell Headlee, Wicker, Miller, Means and Northam. The team hopes to get back in the win column and will try hard for a victory. One thing is assured—that the game will be cleanly played as the Sandusky team is a fast bunch and a clean playing aggregation. The Junior A. C.'s will try their luck with the Rushville Romeos, which defeated them earlier in the season.

Grand Beach, Mich.—The second annual tournament of the Grand Beach Club will be held January 27. Foreign entries are expected.

Chicago—Johnny Meyers, claimant of the world's middleweight pugil championship beat Joe Turner, Philadelphia in two falls.

Chicago—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, meets Michael Romano, the Italian, here tonight.

This Is the Life!

Winter this year was a trifle late in coming, but when it did, made up for lost time. At Lake Placid, N. Y., many prominent folk are enjoying the first heavy snows of the season. Sledding is much in vogue. Left to right you see above: Mary Louise MacDaniel and sister Margaret of Lake Placid; Mrs. Arthur E. Dew, Jr., of Philadelphia; Grace May of Bronxville; Viola Brown of New York.

HANNING WITH FARRELL

Good Heavies in The Making

HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 16—Two young light heavyweights were the best fighters produced last year, and they are the most promising youngsters ready for the busy season that is sure to follow this summer.

Young Stribling, the 19-year-old Macon (Ga.) high school boy, and Ad Stone, a 21-year-old former marine of Philadelphia, were the outstanding products of 1923.

Both are young, well set up and possessed of the fundamentals for building. It is fortunate that both are in good hands and are in no danger of being rushed too fast.

Stribling is managed by his father, a former acrobat, and Stone is under the direction of Maxey Hoff, a well-to-do sportsman, and the only manager on record who does not take a "cut" of the purse.

Experience is all that is needed to bring out the potential qualities in both youngsters, and if they develop in keeping with promise, there is no limit to their possibilities.

As light heavyweights they have a field in which the opposition is none too strong.

Mike McTigue, the world's champion, is a most likeable chap, but he never will be a great champion because he wasn't made to be one.

Tunney is too nice and has too little of the primitive in him to be a savage fighter and the element of the savage is a big factor in the equipment of a champion.

Granting, from past experiences, that most anything can happen this year on the field of sport the accomplishment of the "impossible" has not been brought so close to striking distance that you might read this year:

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Honaker of Glenwood wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Etta, to D. Smith Hoy of near Orange. The wedding was quietly solemnized Saturday, January 12 at the residence of the Rev. L. E. Brown of this city. The bride was prettily dressed in a navy blue satin and georgette dress. The announcement came as a pleasant surprise to their many friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Hoy left this week for an extended visit with the bridegroom's relatives in Columbus, Ohio, where they will probably make their future home. The bridal couple is well known residents of the Glenwood vicinity.

These are the two extremes of suit coats—both desirable—but beware of the unfashionable in between! The short coat may have either a long or rolling collar or a tailored notch collar. It is slightly shirred in at the waist and has long tight-fitting sleeves. The other coat accompanies the handsome costume suit. It has a high collar or a long shawl collar and fastens on the side. It is usually fur trimmed.

After Christmas Grief

Does January first bring to you the unpleasant necessity of saving to pay up your Christmas bills? If so, why not try a different policy this year—namely, saving to buy things instead of to pay for past purchases. Wouldn't it seem good, when another Christmas rolls around, to have money already in the bank with which to buy gifts, and to start the new year with a clean slate and no bills hanging over from the old year?

Membership in our Christmas Savings Club will enable you to buy without facing a day of reckoning.

MOVIES

A Colorful Drama

Highly colorful is the feature at the Princess theatre today and Thursday — and exceptionally dramatic. It is "The Eternal City," a First National picture produced by George Fitzmaurice and presented by Samuel Goldwyn, with Barbara La Marr, Lionel Barrymore, Bert Lytell, Richard Bennett and Montagu Love in the leading roles.

While the production is noted chiefly for its thrilling story, which was written by Sir Hall Caine, the acting of its brilliant cast and its perfect direction, it is particularly colorful in its settings and contrasts.

The dramatic gem of a decade, as it has been described by one critic was filmed entirely in Italy, most of the scenes being taken in the city of Rome. In the background are visible vistas of extraordinary beauty that can be found only in that sunny land. Not only are the rare landscapes, with their mountains, rivers and wealth of foliage on view, but the panorama of the camera has caught many of the ruins for which Italy is noted. There is the Appian Way, the Colosseum with its crumbling walls, the Roman Baths, the Forum and many other spots mentioned in history.

The story ranges from the peacefully countryside to the hectic aristocracy of Rome, with regiments of soldiers and thousands upon thousands of "extras" taking part in the riot scenes where the Fascist sweep everything before them.

"The Cat And The Canary"

"The Cat and the Canary" will come to the Shubert Murat, Indianapolis, Ind., theatre for a week beginning Monday, January 21, to display its thrilling wares, after having displayed them last season in Chicago for thirty-six weeks (same company).

Murder twice told, pressure to produce insanity in an heiress, much light comedy, ghosts, knocks, slamming doors—what a jolt a plain customary door can give at midnight, anyhow—yawning walls and secret passages, pretty ladies, nice villains, ugly men, a madhouse keeper and a brown voodoo woman, who looks snakes and talks daggers.

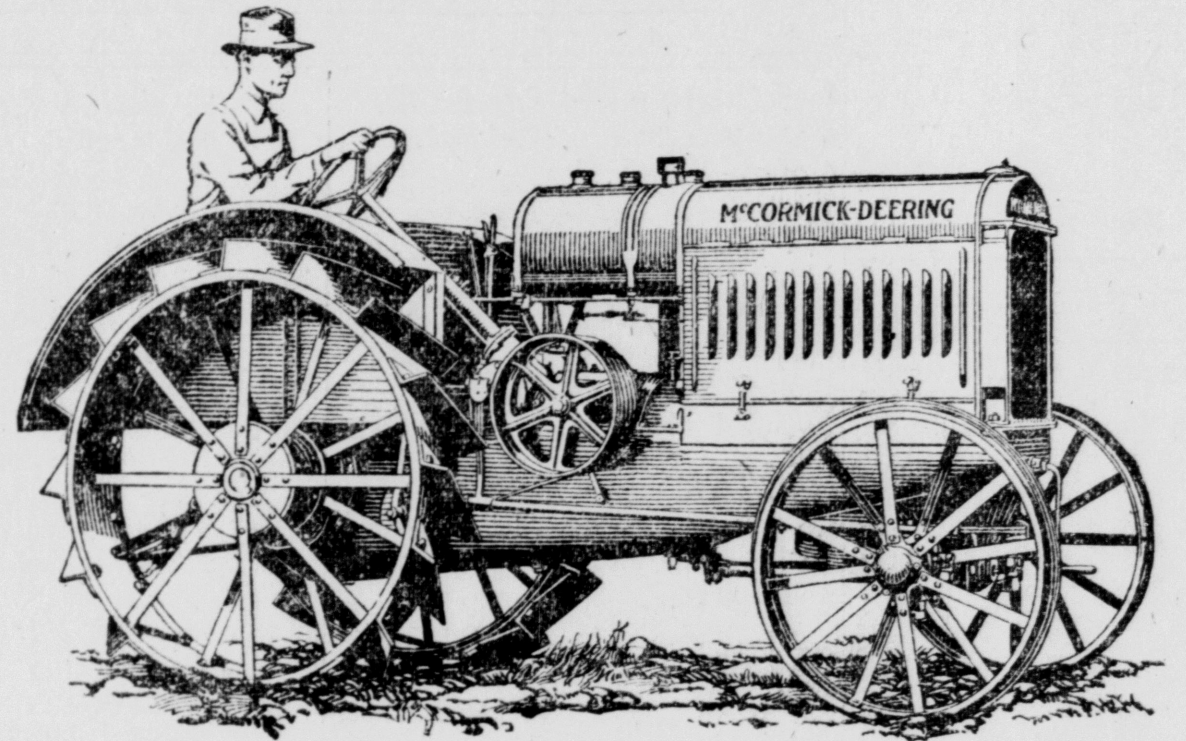

These are a few of the excitements in "The Cat and the Canary." All in dimlit, spooky halls that seem filled with big, staring eyes and creeping hands. Broken seals, a father will, a murdered executor, a tortured heir, dead prints, screams and tolling bells—all these go to make up the comfort of a haunted house on wheels.

Making a liberal mixture of melodrama and comedy, John Willard

PORTLAND CO., OFFICERS NAMED

Sixteen Other Persons Connected
With Hawkins Mortgage Co., Indicted in Federal Court

FOR USING MAIL TO DEFRAUD

Interest in Crash of Portland, Ind.
Concern Here as Several Local
People Investigated

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 16—Three officers of the Hawkins Mortgage Company of Portland, Ind., and sixteen other persons connected with the operation of the concern in Indiana and eight other states were indicted by a federal grand jury here today on charges of using the mails to defraud. It is charged that stockholders in the Hawkins Company and affiliated concerns suffered losses of between four million and six million dollars in the collapse of the concern.

True bills were returned against Morton S. Hawkins, president; Anthony Schlich, vice president; and Carl B. Anderson, secretary-treasurer of the concern. The three men are from Portland, Ind.

Sixteen other persons named in the indictment are said to be from Pennsylvania, Missouri, New York, Indiana and several other states. Names of the others were withheld pending their arrest.

Frank Fuchs, former vice president of the Citizens National bank at Evansville was also indicted on a charge of violating the national banking laws. Investigation of his affairs followed discovery of a shortage of $30,000 in the accounts of the bank.

The grand jury was dismissed after it reported today, but Homer Elliott, district attorney, said it would be summoned again within three or four weeks.

It was believed that the investigation of Governor McCray's affairs if undertaken by the federal authorities, will be made at that time.

The indictment, in sixteen counts, charges that the defendants sold shares of the Hawkins Mortgage company by falsely representing that the company was operating at a profit, when in reality it was constantly operating at a loss.

It is further charged that the defendants organized "wellfare loan societies" and represented them to be "the strongest of their class," with the backing of the Hawkins company and its "80,000,000 worth of assets."

Only 37 of the 102 welfare loan societies organized ever opened their doors for business, the indictment charges. Only two ever made a profit.

Dividends of eight percent were paid on the stock of the Hawkins company and the loan associations but of money collected from the sale of stock, it is charged.

About 700,000 of the money collected through these societies was held out by some defendants for payment of "dividends," it is charged.

Formation of a chain of the welfare loan associations began in 1919.

MISCONSTRUED BY MANY

Combining Railroad Offices Changes
Status of Workers Very Little

The announcement a few days ago in the Daily Republican to the effect that Jesse M. Higgins, Pennsylvania and C. I. & W. freight agent, had been made ticket agent as well for the two railroads, has been misconstrued by many people, who are under the impression that L. C. Snodgrass, now on a leave of absence, is no longer connected with the C. I. & W.

Under the new arrangement, Mr. Snodgrass will still be ticket representative of the two railroads, and will continue to have charge of the ticket business whenever he returns, but the change making Mr. Higgins both ticket and freight agent merely has the effect of placing the business of the two railroads locally under one account. The contract to this effect was made September 1, 1923, but the details were never worked out until the first of this year and did not become effective until January 7.

COLD WAVE IS DUE TONIGHT

Weather Man Predicts Temperature
Will Range Between 15 And 5 Above

Another cold wave warning was sent out this afternoon throughout the state by the weather department, in which the mercury is predicted to fall to 5 to 15 degrees above zero during the night.

The cold wave will be preceded by a general snow storm according to the report, and strong northwest winds will prevail to add to the sudden drop in temperature.

Thursday will be fair and colder, and the lowest for this area is predicted to be near 5 degrees above the zero mark by morning.

BUILDING TO BE OCCUPIED MONDAY

Preparations Made For Jackson
Township Children To Begin Term
in New School Structure

TO BE FINISHED NEXT SUMMER

The new consolidated school building in Jackson township, which was begun about a year ago, is now nearing completion, and seats were installed in the class rooms Tuesday in preparation for the first day of school in the new building on next Monday.

The building is not completed, but the rooms are finished enough to permit school, and the rest of the building, such as the assembly hall and gymnasium will be completed next summer.

The work on the building was delayed several months last summer when it was a hard matter for the contractor to obtain steel window sash, and it had been planned to have the building ready for occupancy at the opening of school last fall. Last year the Jackson township pupils were transferred to Rushville.

This year the old buildings were out in shape and the one room school at Sexton and the two room building at Osborn were utilized until the building could be built for the consolidation. The high school pupils for the most part come to Rushville, and it was intimated today that an effort would be made next fall to install a two year high school course.

JAMES L. NEWKIRK IS DEAD AT AGE OF 71

Well Known Resident of Sexton. Ex-

Seven Children Survive

CAME TO COUNTY WHEN 17

James L. Newkirk, age 71 years, a well known resident of Sexton, died Tuesday night about eight o'clock, following a long illness of complications, of which he had been ill since last August. The deceased was more commonly known as "Doc" Newkirk, and was born August 20, 1852 in Madison county.

He moved to this county when 17 years of age, and had since resided here, and was a farmer of his community. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Rebecca A. Newkirk, and seven children.

The children are Robert of Mays, Daniel of Padmouth, Mrs. Frances Kirkham, Louisville, Mrs. Pearl Nehman, Boers Station, Mrs. Lillie Longfellow, Sexton, Mrs. Myra Oldham, and Garland Newkirk of north of Rushville. Three sisters, Mrs. Sallie O'Keefe, Mrs. Laura Vandament and Mrs. Millie Zorne, all of Gings, also survive.

The deceased was a member of the Christian church at Sexton and was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge of Rushville. Services will be held at the church in Sexton Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Mr. Crawley, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Want Ad. Proves Its Worth At Psychological Moment

The efficacy of the humble want ad as an advertising medium, for obtaining wives or anything else desired, has again been demonstrated, and it happened that the demonstration took place about the time a national journal devoted to the interests of the newspaper business sent a query to the Daily Republican for a concrete example to show that advertising does pay.

And the Republican was able to fill the bill forthwith.

Twelve days ago this man mailed a want ad to the Republican, advertising for a white lady for a companion. The word comes from him that the ad did the work, that it found for him a good Christian woman.

It all transpired in less than two weeks, showing want ads, not only pay well but quickly.

IMPROVEMENT OF PARK CONSIDERED

Preliminary Steps Taken at Council
Meeting to Extend Corporation
Line to Include Addition

BOULEVARD WILL BE BUILT

Ray Lakin Resigns as Parolman, But
No Successor is Named—Homer
Cole is Sworn In

Plans for the improvement of Memorial park will be taken up early this spring, according to an announcement made by members of the city council, at their meeting Tuesday night and at which time preliminary steps were ordered to extend the north corporation limits of the city to include the new park lands.

The city civil engineer will be asked to draw plans and specifications for the Memorial Park Boulevard, and bids for the construction of the driveway will be advertised at a meeting in the near future.

Among other business to come before the council last night, was the resignation of Patrolman Ray P. Lakin, which was accepted by the council. The resignation was effective at once, and no appointment of his successor was made by the councilmen.

Although no reason was assigned for his resignation, it is understood that the recent affair with the police department, in which Mayor Thomas demanded a reorganization of the force, is believed to be responsible in a measure for the policeman's action.

Homer W. Cole, appointed at the last session to fill out the unexpired term of Luther C. Sharp, as city councilman, was on hand last night, and sworn into office.

The council also went on record approving a plan endorsed by the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs of sending a delegation to Indianapolis Friday of this week to call upon the State Board of Tax Commissioners in connection with the decision that is expected to be handed down soon on the paving of Harrison and Eighth streets under the three-mile law.

The paving of this street has been delayed several years, and although the contract was awarded years ago to Lawrence and Ennis for the concrete street, it is understood that the contractors are ready to begin work on the street as soon as the state board gives the authority for the improvement.

SPECIAL JUDGE HEARS MILLER ESTATE CASE

Evidence on Petition To Sell Real Estate Presented to Anderson Jur-
ist in Court

C. A. HALL WINS JUDGMENT

Judge Willis Ellis of Anderson judge of the Madison county superior court, was serving in the circuit court here today in the case of Lem Miller, administrator of the estate of P. A. Miller against Glen Miller et al., in which evidence was being heard on the plaintiff's petition to sell real estate. The old Grand hotel building, corner of First and Main streets, is property of the estate.

Many defendant's were listed in parties in the complaint, and the case had quite an array of legal talent employed by the various parties. The jury was not hearing the case and the evidence was expected to be finished this afternoon, and given over to the special judge, who will render a decision later.

The jury in the case of Chester A. Hall against Huldah Tryon, a complaint on a note which occupied court the first two days this week, awarded the plaintiff judgment on his complaint last Tuesday, giving him $2,264.47 judgment. The jury required about ten minutes for a verdict.

Among the new cases in court is a complaint filed by Albert Bundy, asking that a guardian be appointed for William Bundy, a resident of near Carthage.

CORN GROWERS HOLD THE BOARDS

How Indiana Helped Make Maryland
Real Corn Growing State Related
at Short Course Session

MARYLAND FARMER SPEAKS

After First Classes This Morning, All
Sessions Adjourn For State Corn
Growers Meeting

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 16—How Indiana corn has helped make Maryland a real corn growing state was told the Indiana Corn Growers Association at its annual meet here today. G. D. Radebaugh, of Elkton, Md., county agricultural agent and farmer, and also a member of the extension staff of the College of Agriculture, was the principal speaker.

He traced the early efforts of the Maryland corn growers and then said that the $10 he had spent for a bushel of select seed corn from a well known Indiana grower was the best investment he had ever made.

"I bought this corn and then thought I would get my money's worth by getting all the information I could. I shall never forget that course in corn which this grower, who is here today, gave me. I asked him all about selecting corn, what to look for and how to look for it," said Mr. Radebaugh. "I followed his directions. The seed was selected for type and free from root rot disease which you have discovered, yielded $4.21 bushels per acre. On behalf of Maryland farmers, I want to thank you for all you have meant to us in making Maryland a 'corn state'."

C. E. Troyer, LaFontaine, president of the association, discussed Indiana type of corn. M. H. Overton of the farm management staff spoke on cost of producing corn.

After the first classes this morning all sessions for the day were adjourned for the corn growers' meeting, except that in home economics. Miss Gudrum Carlson, Institute of American Meat Packers, spoke on the food value of meat and while a local butcher made the cuts for her she demonstrated many appetizing ways of preparing the various parts.

Bread from Indiana flour was an important topic discussed this morning while this afternoon was given over to a round table discussion on selection of furniture, draperies, labor saving devices in the home, and skits by the clothing classes of Purdue schools.

Melvin A. Traylor, Chicago bank president will be the speaker tonight.

One Friend Tells Another

The fame of a successful remedy is often spread far and wide by women telling one another of its merits, as is evidenced by a letter written by Mrs. Delbert Bush of Mascota, N. Y. She writes: "I was in such a bad condition I could hardly walk, a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with excellent results advised me to try it. It has given me back my health and I cannot praise it enough." There are women everywhere who have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gladly tell their friends and neighbors about it.

Were the "Good Old Days" Really Good?

WHEN you hear an old-timer sigh for the days of his forefathers, smile quietly to yourself and think of this:

The ancients got along without automobiles, soap, stoves, tooth-brushes, window-glass, breakfast foods, telephones—without practically all of the things we consider the bare essentials of life.

There never has been a time when life bettered itself so rapidly and so consistently as now. New conveniences and new comforts are continually being thought out and brought out for your benefit.

In order to reap the advantages that are yours today, you must read the advertisements. They bring you news of all that the world of invention and discovery is doing to make your work easier, your home life more pleasant, your clothing and food problems less difficult. They keep you informed of all that is new in the markets and stores. They tell you not only about the goods, the styles, the varieties and prices, but also where and when these things are to be had.

The advertisements are messages from the business world to you. Heed them.

Don't overlook the advantages that are yours. Read the advertisements

The Rev. F. R. Arnold Delivering Sermons Each Night At The Wesley M. E. Church

SOME POINTS IN HIS SERMON

The Rev. F. R. Arnold, the evangelist who is here assisting the Rev. C. T. Parker in a revival service at the Wesley M. E. church, spoke last night from the subject "Who's On the Lord's Side?" His text was found in the book of Joshua 4:15. Some of points of discussion were: "The Age of Infidelity has passed." "And If Robert Ingersoll lived today he would speak to more empty benches than hearers." He said "the masses were given to too much pleasure seeking." His climax was an illustration of a mother's light shining out over the sea to guide her husband and daughter back to harbor. He applied this illustration by saying: "Regardless how weak we may be, we can hold a light to struggling souls to help them to find harbor." Much interest is displayed each evening by the prayer services, and the choir could not be excelled in the renditions of appropriate selections, it is said. The public is urged to attend these services each evening. The subject for tonight will be "Trusting in God."

FARMERS SILENT ABOUT NEW YEAR

Decline to Express Views Regarding Prospects For a Good Year Regarding Finances

CROP OUTLOOK IS GOOD

Adjustment For Farmer Includes Lowering of Taxes And Economy in Expenditures

By BRUCE SHORT
President, The Engineering Sales Corporation
(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 15.—Bankers, merchants, manufacturers and economists have joined their voices together in declaring they expect 1924 to be "a happy and prosperous new year," but the farmers have kept their silence. Their interests have been flouted when other enterprises prospered in the past and their purchasing power has fluctuated independently of so-called economic influences. So they are skeptical about making predictions even when all indications point toward a good year for them.
But there has been a slight change in the farmer's favor within the past year and all appearances point to further slight changes in that direction during 1924. Through co-operative marketing and scientific rotation of his crops, the farmer is gradually coming to control his own financial destiny and many steps will be taken in that direction during the current year. In addition, the crop outlook is encouraging.

One of the greatest problems confronting the farmer is that of taxation. Of all the industries, the farmer bears more than his share of the tax burden, because all of his property is tangible and all of it is listed on the tax duplicate. Intangible wealth escapes taxation to a large degree. Remedial steps may be taken to overcome this situation the innate selfishness of some politicians may seek to save money to financiers for political expediency.
This selfishness, present in all to some extent, prevents an equitable taxation and thereby throws more of the burden on the farmer. If all property were listed at actual value the burden would be more evenly apportioned. To bring about a readjustment the farmer has adopted this creed:
"Economy in public expenditures. Honest value for money spent. Just apportionment of burden."
The buying of steel for the year is starting with little momentum, but with steady conservatism that makes for lasting and enduring prosperity and this fact as a criterion of business a better outlook is reflected for the farmer.
A Common Habit.
A free people is one that endures the waste of billions and scolds about a little junket.—The Duluth Herald.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1924

Better Business

Better business methods will come about largely through organization.
The business man who belongs to his trade association and attends its meetings regularly not alone profits himself, but his customers profit also.

He keeps in stride with the new ideas that are developing in his particular line. He learns new devices to cut down the overhead and thus make it possible to reduce his retail prices.

Business men who follow this policy have higher standards because association with their fellow dealers teaches them that a new standard is coming into business.

It is no longer the rule that the buyer should beware. Instead, the seller is beginning to realize his responsibility to the buyer—that a fair profit is all he is entitled to. If he takes more, the buyer will find him out because his competitor is doing business on a new ethical basis.

Every profession is organized to maintain the high ethical standard that it aims to follow. Business men are seeing the light and following the same path.

The auctioneers of Indiana are the latest recruits to this new movement that is general throughout the country.

The association's object is to promote harmony, co-operation and good fellowship among those who follow that business. They hope to advance their calling by placing its services to the public on a higher plane.

That is the keynote in all business organization—to raise the standard and thus remove all doubt of questionable practices.

The buyer is being considered as never before. It is a movement that should be encouraged.

Petitions

Not so long ago a petition ten miles long, bearing the names of 315,546 people, was presented to congress.

It matters little what the petition was for. The point is that congress is petitioned so often that one seldom creates a ripple on the surface of the pleid capitol.

To a politician nothing is quite so funny as a petition, or a resolution which amounts to the same thing.
It is the favorite outdoor sport of a large class of our so-called good citizens. They take it seriously.

But the hardened politician? He knows a petition is little more than the letting go of mental pressure, the exhaust pipe of the over-worked business man.

He is well aware that resolutions and petitions are solemnly read, widely acclaimed through the public press, invariably adopted with a loud aye vote—and very soon forgotten.

The politician can afford to take time to read them when they come in from the home district. He knows they express the sentiment of the people of that locality for the moment, and he also knows that very few of the petitioners or the resoluters will be out on primary day, when political power is given birth.

He has been in the game long enough to know that until people take an active part in politics, actually join a political party and have something to say about its conduct, petitions and resolutions are the least of his worries—except that they take a certain amount of time.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

Open Season For Crows

"Any old time" is the open season for crows; but a stormy day at this season of the year, is by far the best time to "make the feathers fly" even if you can't hit Mr. Crow. The inherent quality of sportsmanship is the chief cause of wars and "gun-clubs" then why not direct this stupendous waste against a real enemy of mankind?

The idea, is to let it become generally understood that on a cold stormy day in winter, when there is abundant of leisure, and need for recreation, is to be known as "crow day", and that on that day the crows is to have no resting place for the sole of his feet.

I have found it to be a good plan, to hang a few crows in the top of a tall tree for lure. This is done by—first shooting a crow or two—and then passing a twine over the top of said tree. For the benefit of those who would climb the tree to pass the twine over its top, would say that this is very easily done by fastening a bolt to the end of the twine and throwing the bolt over the top of the tree. The twine unwinds quite readily from the center of a ball of binder twine, and the lure is soon placed.

The chief idea in this method of routing the crows from a county or state—for they have really become a state menace—is to have concerted action. If it is known that "every stormy-day" is "crow-day", and that it is quite difficult for the crows to fly, and that at best they proceed on "low gear", in a strong wind, we would soon be able to rid the community of this nuisance without having special appointed dates for the work of sport as you choose to name it.

TOURNEY HERE

NEWSY GOSSIP IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

TICKETS COMING FOR
GAME WITH IKMIKSHITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

Hooray, we getta tourney again this year, and Mr. Ihsaa gives Richmond a regional also, and tells Rushville that they can send their Lions to the Richmond regional. That's fine. Cancel our ticket for Shelbyville.

Rushville will have lots of company up at Richmond with the winners from Indianapolis, Shelbyville, Newcastle and others. Sorta handy, to have a regional so close to home.

The Lions have decided to let the Ikmiiks win both games, we understand, and then when the tourney comes around, mop up the earth with 'em, if Moscow, Raleigh or some other county team don't do it first.

ANOTHER TOURNEY BOOKED

Gosh, lots of excitement! Girls arrange to hold a basketball tourney here February 23. All ten high school girls' teams in Rush county will come here for the all day session. Whose going to win the cup. Is it proper to call a girl's team a "dark horse?"

It wouldn't be safe to invite that Orange team with that girl shark, getting 20 goals in one game.

Tickets for the Connersville game will be sent here last of this week. Only 100 available, and even at that it won't guarantee admission, unless you are on hand when the big gate swings open.

LOOK FOR IT, SIDE LIGHTS

Judge Sparks has not found his automobile, and he is inclined to believe that old Liz made an early get-away, and is now parked in front of the Rink over at Connersville, or else in front of the community hall at Greenfield.

Best will referee and Mowe will umpire for the game at Connersville next Friday night. Two good officials. Show 'em you can play basketball, gang.

Don't forget that the thirteenth game this season is being played at Greenfield Friday night by the Lions. Everyone better carry a rabbit's foot, or luck might change.

A Webb booster told Hittin' 'em today, that his team was going to make Carthage look like a back number. They play here Friday night.

WATCH ARLINGTON

That surprise party that Jimmie Hyatt said he expected Arlington to spring, someone of these days, might be an upset for Raleigh Friday night over at Arlington.

Milroy plays at Manilla Friday night, and the way that Manilla has been acting up lately, we wouldn't be a bit surprised if they didn't try terribly hard to get back in the winning again.

MAYBE HAMBURG

surprised. Our guess is that it will be Muncie, or probably Frankfort, Vincennes or Anderson, and not Connersville, Columbus, Shelbyville or Rushville.

Whatever team he picks, is the least of our worries. The one he picks, will be offset by 745 others, all disputing it.

PA, MA AND THE KIDS
LEAVE HOME FRIDAY

The Lions tribe leaves their barn Friday night, with the Lions and their Cubs going over to Greenfield, and the Lionesses will go down to Columbus to meet the Bull Dog girls. What a great night it would be if all three teams could win in the same night.

SAVE US A STALL IN
THE COUNTY STABLE

Dear Hittin' 'em—
I have been noticing the paper every day, but I haven't seen anything in there about a stall for the New Salem Jinx.

We have been going good lately and advise some of those teams that have been getting honorable mentions to keep an eye on us at the tourney.

We have won our last eight games. We play Center at Rushville January 18, then Morristown and Webb, February 22. We are not scared of any of the teams scheduled for the rest of the season. Here's our last eight victories:

Orange here 15 to 11.
Arlington, here, 29 to 17.
Fairview here, 22 to 15.
Center, here, 26 to 6.
Orange, there, 24 to 12.
Fairview there, 23 to 20.
Glenwood here, 39 to 9.
Arlington there, 23 to 19.

A FAN

Arlington, Ind.

Dear Hittin' 'em:

So many have been picking an all county team. Chances are that a few are making fairly good choice. But just wait until around about tourney time and Arlington will make somebody open their eyes. It is true that we have had a bad go this season but nevertheless that undying spirit is found amongst us in every game. And it is our policy to make some team earn their meat in the tourney. Watch for us! We are going over the top!

Yours for success,

Albertus, the Great Mental Jibber, is in Frankfort this week, and predicts Frankfort for the state champ. By the time the tourney rolls around, we'll wager ole Bartie will be far away, in fear that his prediction might not come true.

There's a Hoo-doo doctor in these parts that can cure all diseases, raise the dead, and about everything else that comes before her, and for an extra side line she'd sure clean up a lot of pack, if she would tell some of these teams what ails 'em.

THIS BIG 5 LOOKS
LIKE A BIG 10

Dear Hittin' 'em:
I suppose you would deem it a great favor if I should send you my big, all county five. Well here it is: Hilligoss, Rushville; Snoddy, Rushville; Miller, Rushville; forwards; Walker, Rushville; Newbold, Rushville; Lakin, Rushville; centers; Comella, Rushville; McNamara, Rushville; Warth, Rushville; Sherman, Rushville guards. What do you think of it? Pretty good 'eh?

But say, Hittin' 'em, the main object of this letter was to find out if some of these wise birds up at Carthage, who think they have such a wonderful team, can think up any better. I doubt it don't you?

I'll tell this to the whole world through you. Comp. or slam, take it as you like it. Yours for a while,

THE GRAHAM ANNEX

Will Meet Carthage Netters Next Friday Night And Arlington The Following Friday Night

RUSHVILLE 5 WILL BE AWAY

The Webb high school basketball team will be host here Friday night to the Carthage high school netters, and the game will be played at the Graham Annex gymnasium, instead of the Modern Appliance building.

This was made possible on account of the absence of the Graham high school team, which will be playing in Greenfield, and the Webb school was given the privilege of trying their luck with the glass banking boards.

The Webb team also will play here on the next Friday night when the Lions are in Connersville, and this game will be played at the Graham school, with Arlington as the opponent of Webb.

Rushville basketball fans, who are unable to accompany the Lions to Greenfield, will be given an opportunity of seeing the Carthage and Webb teams play. Each team is believed to have an even break, and the floor will be in a great measure a neutral court.

COUNTY TOURNEY FOR GIRLS IS ANNOUNCED

Ten High Schools Having Teams Composed of The "Weaker Sex" Are Expected to Enter

SET FOR SATURDAY, FEB 23

Plans for a county high school basketball tourney for all ten high schools in the county having a girl's team, have about been completed, it was announced today by Eugene B. Butler, principal of the local high school, and the date for the one day tourney has been set for Saturday, February 23.

Entry lists for the teams are being received and indications point to the fact that every one of the ten girl's teams will be here for the games, and details for the drawing will be announced in a few days.

With ten teams in the county, it will mean 9 games to decide the winner, and a busy day will be in sight for the girls. The games will be played at the Graham Annex gymnasium, and it will be the first event of its kind in the history of Rush county schools.

will play the winner of 9 a. m. game in the first contest of the afternoon and the winner of the 10 a. m. game will meet the winner of the 11 a. m. in the second game, with the final at night. It is expected that curtain-raiser will be arranged for the night game.

Season tickets for the tourney are being sold at $1 and single admission to the games will be 50 cents. Titts-worth and Cook will act as referees.

Rushville Rooters Will Have to Take "Pot Luck" With Connersville on Getting Seats

SPECIAL CAR WILL BE RUN

The Connersville school authorities are sending over to Rushville the latter part of this week, 100 tickets for the Rushville-Connersville game, which is to be played in that city January 25.

These tickets will be placed on sale only at the school building, and those wanting a ticket must make reservations from the school. A ticket will not guarantee admission to the gymnasium, it was announced, and everyone holding a ticket must be in line when the doors are opened.

A special car on the I. & C. traction line will be run from this city for the high school fans and others desiring to go, and the car will leave here at 4:30 or 5 o'clock. The doors at the gymnasium are billed to be opened at 6:45, and the cars from here are leaving soon enough to give the Rushville rooters an equal chance to get in line before the doors open.

Best will be the official referee, it was announced, and Ray Mowe will be the umpire for the game.

Marlow Brothers Are Members of Fast Independent Basket Cagers to Invade The County

HOW TWO TEAMS WILL LINE UP

The Arlington A. C's will tackle the Sandusky Independents Thursday night at the Arlington gym. The Sandusky team is composed of the following players: R. Marlow, C. Marlow, Clark, Osterling and Ruddell. Little is known of this team's record for the season as they have played no games in Rush county, but everyone knows the ability of the Marlow brothers and fast game is assured.

This will probably be the only appearance of the Sandusky team in the county this season and all fans are urged to attend. The Arlington team will use the following well known players: Shook, Gardner, Emerson and Lowell Headlee, Wicker, Miller, Means and Northam. The team hopes to get back in the win column and will try hard for a victory. One thing is assured—that the game will be cleanly played as the Sandusky team is a fast bunch and a clean playing aggregation. The Junior A. C's will try their luck with the Rushville Romeos, which defeated them earlier in the season.

HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 16—Two young light heavyweights were the best fighters produced last year, and they are the most promising youngsters ready for the busy season that is sure to follow this summer.

Young Stribling, the 19-year-old Macon (Ga.) high school boy, and Ad Stone, a 21-year-old former marine of Philadelphia, were the outstanding products of 1923.

Both are young, well set up and possessed of the fundamentals for building. It is fortunate that both are in good hands and are in no danger of being rushed too fast.

Stribling is managed by his father, a former acrobat, and Stone is under the direction of Maxey Hoff, a well-to-do sportsman, and the only manager on record who does not take a "cut" of the purse.

Experience is all that is needed to bring out the potential qualities in both youngsters, and if they develop in keeping with promise, there is no limit to their possibilities.

As light heavyweights they have a field in which the opposition is none too strong.

Mike McTigue, the world's champion, is a most likeable chap, but he never will be a great champion because he wasn't made to be one.

Tunney is too nice and has too little of the primitive in him to be a savage fighter and the element of the savage is a big factor in the equipment of a champion.

Granting, from past experiences, that most anything can happen this year on the field of sport the accomplishment of the "impossible" has not been brought so close to striking distance that you might read this year:

At the closing event of the meeting, dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Newhouse, January 22.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Houaker of Glenwood wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Eta, to D. Smith Hoy of near Orange. The wedding was quietly solemnized Saturday, January 12 at the residence of the Rev. L. E. Brown of this city. The bride was prettily dressed in a navy blue satin and georgette dress. The announcement came as a pleasant surprise to their many friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Hoy left this week for an extended visit with the bridegroom's relatives in Columbus, Ohio, where they will probably make their future home. The bridal couple is well known residents of the Glenwood vicinity.

The Kamentri Club held a splendid meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. F. Johnson in North Perkins street. The subject for discussion was "Johnson and His Circle," and was ably given by Mrs. Kate Allen. The roll call was responded to by a few facts about

WILL THEY RECOMMEND EXPULSION OR NOT?

Senator Earle B. Mayfield of Texas may or may not be ousted from the upper house of Congress. It depends largely on what this committee finds. Let to right: Senator M. M. Greene of Vermont; Messrs. gambun, Hanger and Nichols, attorneys for Senator Mayfield; and Counsel Woodward for George Paddy, who is contesting the seat. In the rear are shown John Rhoades and A. Bartholmew, assisting the committee.

These are the two extremes of suit coats—both desirable—but beware of the unfashionable in between! The short coat may have either a long or rolling collar or a tailored notch collar. It is slightly shaped in at the waist and has long tight-fitting sleeves. The other coat accompanies the handsome costume suit. It has a high collar or a long shawl collar and fastens on the side. It is usually fur trimmed.

After Christmas Grief

Does January first bring to you the unpleasant necessity of saving to pay up your Christmas bills? If so, why not try a different policy this year—namely, saving to buy things instead of to pay for past purchases. Wouldn't it seem good, when another Christmas rolls around, to have money already in the bank with which to buy gifts, and to start the new year with a clean slate and no bills hanging over from the old year?

Membership in our Christmas Savings Club will enable you to buy without facing a day of reckoning.

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Oswatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there came to be a Ladies' Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months. . . .

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman. . . .

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no other medicine for women than Cardui."

MOVIES

A Colorful Drama

Highly colorful is the feature at the Princess theatre today and Thursday — an exceptionally dramatic. It is "The Eternal City," a First National picture produced by George Fitzmaurice and presented by Samuel Goldwyn, with Barbara La Marr, Lionel Barrymore, Bert Llewellyn, Richard Bennett and Montagu Love in the leading roles.

While the production is noted chiefly for its thrilling story, which was written by Sir Hall Caine, the setting of its brilliant cast and its perfect direction, it is particularly colorful in its settings and contrasts.

The dramatic gem of a decade, as it has been described by one critic, was filmed entirely in Italy, most of the scenes being taken in the city of Rome. In the background are visible vistas of extraordinary beauty that can be found only in that sunny land.

Not only are the rare landscapes, with their mountains, rivers and wealth of foliage on view, but the panorama of the camera has caught many of the ruins for which Italy is noted. There is the Appian Way, the Colosseum with its crumbling walls, the Roman Baths, the Forum and many other spots mentioned in history.

The story ranges from the peacefully countryside to the hectic aristocracy of Rome, with regiments of soldiers and thousands upon thousands of "extras" taking part in the riot scenes where the Fascist sweep everything before them.

"The Cat And The Canary"

"The Cat and the Canary" will come to Shubert Murat, Indianapolis, Ind., theatre for a week beginning Monday, January 21, to display its thrilling scenes, after having displayed them last season in Chicago for thirty-six weeks (same company).

Mander twice told, pressure to produce insanity in an heiress, much light comedy, ghosts, knocks, slamming doors—what a jolt a plain customary door can give at midnight, anyhow—yawning walls and secret passages, pretty ladies, nice villains, ugly men, a madhouse keeper and a brown voodoo woman, who looks snakes and talks daggers.

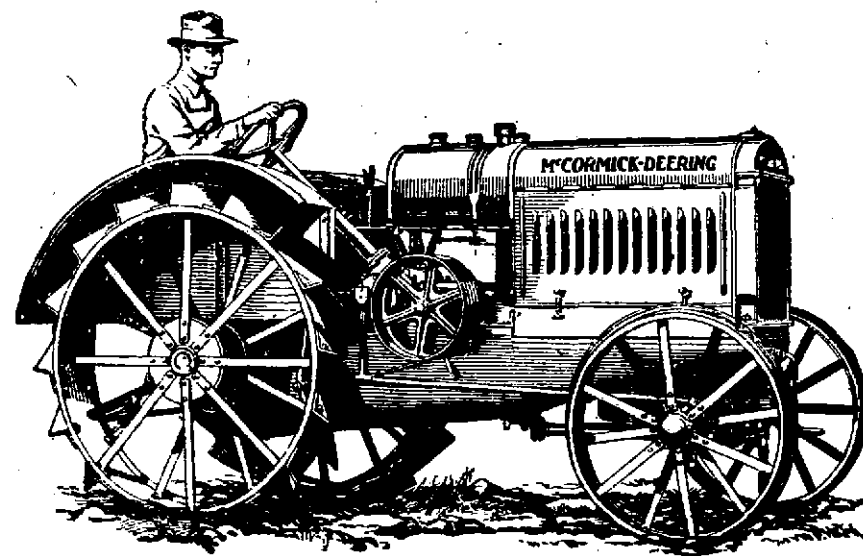

These are a few of the excitements in "The Cat and the Canary." All in dimly lit, spooky halls that seem filled with big, staring eyes and creeping hands. Broken seals, a false will, a murdered executor, a tortured heir, dead faints, screams and tolling bells—all these go to make up the comfort of a haunted house on wheels.

Making a liberal mixture of melodrama and comedy, John Willard
